There are loads of Compass Card deals in Chichester! We've highlighted just a few below and there's a full list of venues over the page, along with info about how you can keep up to date with all of our Compass Card offers.

Weald and Downland Living Museum

Discover 50 rescued traditional rural buildings set in 40 acres of downland, which tell the stories of the men, women and children who lived and worked in them over 950 years. Compass Card holders pay the disability concessionary rate at the museum and one carer or companion goes free with a card holder.

Aldingbourne Country Centre

Aldingbourne Country Centre is run by charity Aldingbourne Trust that supports adults with learning disabilities. The centre is also open to the public as a visitor attraction; there's an indoor slide, a woodland walk, an open farm with a variety of animals, a treasure trail, mini golf, Enchanted Garden with castle, plants for sale and wonderful home-cooked food in the café. There's free entry for one carer supporting a Compass Card holder.

Flip Out

Flip Out is West Sussex's biggest trampoline park with 70 trampolines, 22 Olympic trampolines, two free running areas, dodgeball, wall climb, a tumble track, vertical drop slide, wall runners and a ninja obstacle course. There are also two party rooms, soft play and a café. Flip Out also holds SEND specific sessions where lighting and music will be turned down to create a calm atmosphere. Compass Card holders get a 50% discount on entry and free entry for one carer.

Chichester Festival Theatre

Chichester Festival Theatre is one of the UK's flagship theatres, renowned for the high standard of its productions, as well as its work with the community and young people. During the summer it offers epic productions and exciting musicals alongside compelling, intimate dramas and world premieres. During the winter there is touring drama, music, dance, comedy and family shows. There are regular relaxed performances, as well as touch tours. By joining the Chichester Festival Theatre Access List, Compass Card holders and a companion are eligible for a discount of up to 40% on general ticket sales.
